Plaintiff Attorney: Richard B. Koskoff & Lawrence R. Booth
(Booth & Koskoff), Torrance (310) 515-1361

Defendant Attorney: Confidential

Court: Torrance Judge: William Beverly, Jr. Date: 3/94

Insurance Co.: Confidential

Case: Confidential Confidential

Facts: 6/88: Plaintiff, 40 year-old instrument calibrator, fell 15 to 20 feet while attempting to escape a cloud of steam which engulfed him while he was working on a grated platform calibrating instruments at the Defendant's facility.

Injuries: Head injury--concussion Treatment: Hospitalized with neurological evaluation Residuals: Mild cognitive disfunction

Medical Costs: $125,000 past, future unknown

Loss of Earnings: $500,000 past and future present value

Contentions: Plaintiff claimed that the Defendant and co-Defendant should not have allowed workers to be present in an area where steam cleaning of equipment was taking place. The area should have been roped off and barricaded.

Defendant argued that the area was roped off. Workers were informed of the steam cleaning activity which had been going on for days.

Settlement: $2,750,000 total; $1,950,000 from Def #1, $800,000 from Def #2.
